Debating American Policy toward China

China Watchers from American academia, think tanks, civic organizations, government, and military circles have been debating what policies the U.S. should have toward China. Recently, two open letters have circulated. One was published in the Washington Post with the headline "China is not an enemy." It begins,

"We are deeply concerned about the growing deterioration in U.S. relations with China, which we believe does not serve America...

The main banner features a MateBook X Pro laptop with the text 'More screen, less border. CheckMATE.' and 'MateBook X Pro'. There are also award logos for 'LAPTOP EDITORS' CHOICE' and 'PC BEST MWC 2018'. Below the banner is a navigation menu with three categories: 'Consumer' (Phones, PC & Tablets, Wearables and More), 'Enterprise' (Products, Solutions and Services for Enterprises), and 'Carrier' (Products, Solutions and Services for Carriers).

Why Have Migrant Projects Failed?

- Focused just on health care – not all the factors that affect health = “determinants of health” or “wellness”
- Projects designed without the participation of workers and other stakeholders (top-down approach)
